Agreed with Kory and Clay's initial e-mail. They're getting protection for the exchange platform via the list of companies they provided. All of those companies are in the crypto trading "swim lane" and are prohibited from doing any sponsorships... [REDACTED]

We won't do business with any other centralized exchange

They can provide us a list of competitors

That's the limitation

Ryan, we would ask for a heads up so we could do what we need to to do. See below recommendation.

Thanks Erika! I think we'll have Spencer from our team handling this but will confirm and put you in touch.

Also, can you please send the exclusivity stuff we talked about? I ran all of this by Mark and he still has some questions. I just want to be sure he's good with it as he and Steve discussed a few things we were not privy to.

Thanks!

Appreciate you and your team's work to bring us to this point, we are incredibly excited to be your partner!

Looking forward to receiving the draft agreement as well as next steps on PR and Mkt.

I also have a fun idea to activate your team, help them accelerate their crypto learning that I'd love to run by you - it's a small idea to support internal excitement around the partnership. NO rush of course.

Have a great day.
